DISMISSED UD PROFESSOR WITHDRAWS APPEAL

DAYTON, Ohio -- A University of Dayton professor, dismissed for adequate cause including sexual harassment of a student and academic dishonesty, will not appeal his dismissal.

The University launched an investigation after the student filed a grievance against Bahram Haghighi, assistant professor of criminal justice. Haghighi was dismissed in June.

UD associate provost John Geiger said Haghighi withdrew his appeal, gave up his faculty position and has left the University.
